Our vision at Davenant is that all students achieve excellence through Pride, Participation and Passion. They will reflect the Love of God in all they do. Our students will share in the enjoyment of a vibrant learning community, making outstanding academic progress and will participate fully in all aspects of school life. They will explore new interests and develop a true passion for learning which will accompany them through their lives armed with the cultural capital and determination to succeed. Our school will present the opportunities, remove the barriers and inspire the individual.

IMPACT OF THIS POLICY.

- To ensure the consistent delivery of effective education, based on proven research led strategies that take account of the cognitive science that explains how students learn.
- To support all of our students to achieve the highest academic qualifications possible, identifying and removing barriers by ensuring they have the most appropriate pathway and learning opportunities to support this.
- To keep learning at the heart of what we do at the school and provide all stake holders with a clear vision of effective teaching and learning.
- To foster the nurturing of mind, body and spirit.

Aims

Learning is everybody's responsibility and lies at the heart of what we do. It is the core business of Davenant Foundation School. We aim to create an effective and engaging learning environment in every lesson that supports excellent levels of progress for all students, identifies and removes barriers and installs a life time love of learning.

Our Teaching:

- Prepares students for the 21st Century – life & work.
- Is underpinned by our vision and values.
- Supports students' social, emotional, physical, spiritual and academic development.
- Takes place in a safe and nurturing environment.
- Is research-led and informs our planning and SOW
- Is adaptive to ensure that all students make outstanding progress.
- Is underpinned by an understanding that knowledge is the basis of all skills

Our teachers will:

- Ensure students feel safe and secure in the learning environment.
- Be passionate & knowledgeable subject specialist teachers.

- Aim to improve student literacy
- Constantly aim to challenge misconceptions.
- Use high level questioning skills to ensure quality learning takes place.
- Use quality assessment and feedback to further inform learning and progress.
- Adapt to the needs of individuals whatever their ability.
- Continue to strive to better understand learning through CPD and research-based evidence.
- Give high quality feedback to help improve performance

At Davenant we understand that learning requires a partnership between Teachers and Students.

Research

Davenant Lessons will be based on a secure understanding of effective research-led strategies based on cognitive science. These are summarised on the T&L Policy Summary – Appendix 1. This is a working document that all teachers will have access to which will evolve as part of the school's pedagogy.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Teachers have a responsibility to keep up to date both with research led teaching and learning and any relevant knowledge in their subject areas.
- Heads of Department have responsibility to ensure the schools approach to teaching and learning is being practiced across the department, that all members of the department are led and supported through quality CPD to improve as practitioners and subject specialists. They will monitor T&L within their department identifying the needs of their staff and ensuring bespoke and relevant CPD takes place.
- Heads of Year are responsible for academic mentoring and supporting students to work with their subject teachers to identify and remove barriers to improve learning and progress.
- Senior Leaders have a responsibility to ensure that the teaching and learning policy is adhered to across the school through monitoring and supporting each of the middle leaders through line management and whole school monitoring. They are also responsible to ensure that T&L CPD is central to the schools meeting structure and that adequate time is made available for HOD and lead specialists to work with teachers and support staff.

They will evaluate the effectiveness and consistency of delivery of the Teaching and Learning Policy by;

- Discussing it as a standing item during all line management meetings
- Ensuring the lesson observations are purposeful and reflective
- Monitoring feedback and assessment
- Analysing student progress and attainment data to inform improvements
- Valuing 'student voice' feedback
- Reviewing exam results and using the schools self-evaluation process to inform improvements in T&L
- The Governing Body is responsible for monitoring the quality of teaching and learning through reports on student progress, examination results and CPD (to the Curriculum Committee) and through discussion with HoTLAs through link Governor visits.

- High quality CPD for all staff is an integral part of developing teaching and learning at Davenant. The programme is structured and planned by continued self-evaluation both at department and a school level.
- Teachers have a responsibility for managing their own CPD through self-reflection and working with their Heads of Department.
- Heads of Departments lead Subject relevant CPD and support the whole school approach in their department by recognising the needs of their staff and arranging relevant and targeted training.
- The programme aims to meet the needs of all teachers, at whatever point in their career, to ensure that their teaching is engaging and effective. Support of teachers T&L will be modelled on the adoption of the appropriate research-informed strategies for their subject.
- All staff are expected to share good practice and support each other both in department and across the school
- Teacher Appraisal is fully integrated and can be used as a mechanism to support colleagues in improving their practice and therefore raising standards.
